Seventh grader Eddie is determined honor his father's legacy and win the school science fair in this fun and quirky debut novel.

Eddie learned everything there is to know about birding from his dad, including the legend of the Golden Eagle, which Dad claimed he saw once down near Miss Dorothy's pond. According to his dad, the Golden Eagle had wings wider than a creek and talons the size of bulldozer claws. But when Eddie was in sixth grade, Dad "flew away" for good, leaving Eddie on his own to await the return of the elusive raptor.

Now Eddie is starting seventh grade and trying to impress Gabriella, the new girl in town. The annual seventh grade Science Symposium (which Dad famously won) is looming, and Eddie is determined to claim the blue ribbon for himself. With Mr. Dover, the science teacher who was Dad's birding rival, seemingly against him, and with Mouton, the class bully, making his life miserable on all fronts, Eddie is determined to overcome everything and live up to Dad's memory. Can Eddie soar and make his dream take flight?

Daphne Shew:

As a pupil exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make a summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this Soar can make you really feel more interested to read.
