This book represents a fascinating compilation of conversations, notes from Nuno Oliveira's lessons, biographical material and observations about his teachings, as well as a personal journey about what it was like to study under the Master despite a significant physical disability. Within these pages are pictures — including some never before published — that span the Master's career. Also included are tributes to the Master written by prominent international riders who studied under him. A chapter examining the influence of Baucherism on Oliveira's work includes important historical observations from noted French authors Michel Henriquet and Jean-Claude Racinet.

“Nuno Oliveira occupies a unique place in equestrian history,” explains the author “With his blending of the classical exercises of the Old Masters and his skilled interpretation of the innovations of François Baucher, he took equitation to new heights of lightness, suppleness, and brilliance. His legacy now spans three generations. No other Master in living memory has so captured the art and poetry, the heart and soul, of classical equitation.”

In the words of renowned author, Sylvia Loch: “Stephanie's book is a masterpiece.” In this “beautiful and important book,” Loch's introduction concludes, “Not only is there so much to share and learn, it is one of which the Mestre himself would be immensely proud.”
