Dear Trish, someday I want to marry you...

Craig Cadman has proposed to Trish Lowery at least a dozen times. Of course, he started when he was nine and kept at it until her parents moved away when they were both teens. Clearly, she didn't take him seriously. Because now, after ten years, she's back...and engaged to someone else. He has to remember that. Just do the job, help her renovate her gram's Victorian house and keep a professional distance. But Craig can't forget those old feelings. Is working together just stirring up nostalgia...or is this something more?
