Derwent Valley Walks: The villages & communities around Chatsworth Denis Eardley

In 2011 Derby Books produced 'Derwent Valley Walks' by Denis Eardley. When JMD Media were asked to make this book available as an e-book, we decided to give the customer a choice.

You can buy the whole e-book with all 10 circular walks and 20 linear walks for full price, or buy an individual chapter focusing on a specific area of the Derwent Valley.

Each individual chapter includes an introduction to the particular area of the Derwent Valley, 2 linear walks, and 1 circular walk which can be subdivided into 2 short walks. Each individual chapter also includes the original 'Introduction', 'The Walks' and 'Important Notes'.

The Derwent Valley is one of this country's finest assets, both from the point of view of its heritage and magnificent scenery. Although only about 60 miles in length, it fills mighty reservoirs near its source, and has been harnessed to power mills and, most importantly played an outstanding part in the Industrial Revolution.

This was recognised in 2001, when the Derwent Valley was awarded World Heritage Status, the site running from Masson Mill at Matlock Bath to the former Derby Silk Mill, a distance of approximately 15 miles. It is the only World Heritage Site in the East Midlands.

'The Villages and Communities around Chatsworth' invites you to explore 'The Palace of the Peak', named Britain's Best Stately Home in Period Living and Traditional Homes magazine's Best of British Awards 2004–05.

Today, Chatsworth is one of the Treasure Houses of England, with fine furniture, sculpture, tapestry, paintings and other works of art. Set in beautiful surroundings in the heart of the Peak District National Park, it attracts admiring visitors from all over the world.

There are 10 individual e-books available in Derwent Valley Walks series.
