Postfeminist Digital Cultures: Femininity, Social Media, and Self-Representation (Critical Studies in Gender, Sexuality, and Culture) Amy Shields Dobson

Postfeminist Digital Cultures explores some of the more controversial and contested social media practices engaged in by girls and young women, including sexual self-representations on social network sites, sexting, and self-harm vlogs. Informed by feminist media and cultural studies, Dobson delves beyond alarmist accounts to ask what it is we fear about young women's self-representation in networked publics, and unpacks the complexity of digitally mediating young femininity in the postfeminist era.
