Annotated Navigation Rules: International Vs. US Inland

Annotated Navigation Rules: International Vs. US Inland

This is the first print edition of a book previously available only in ebook format. It is the full Navigation Rules book, just as would be purchased without annotations, but this one has been carefully annotated to mark all differences between the US Inland Rules and the International Rules (COLREGS). The differences are prominently color coded: Yellow means this Rule on the same subject is different in US Inland vs. International waters. Orange means the Rule is unique to Inland Rules. Blue means the Rule unique to International Rules. Green means different wording, but no practical difference. This is an up to date edition of the Rules, including recent changes to the Demarcation Lines. It is an ideal resource if you sail both Inland and Coastal waters and for USCG license exam preparation.
