Aubrey Whitsmith knows things could be a lot worse. Being transferred to a penal colony on a quarantined dinosaur world, she expected her life to have been over. During an uprising, the prison is seized by the inmates and Whitsmith finds herself the secretary to Dexter Valentine, the man now in charge of several hundred of the worst convicts ever known. Finding the only way to survive is to keep the inmates happy, Whitsmith is charged with acquiring dinosaurs to be used in pit fights. However, when three soldiers appear on his doorstep, Valentine realises his dominancy might be about to collapse. But the soldiers are less interested in his criminal activities than they are with what's pursuing them through the swamp. For there is something out there, stalking them all. As the foremost authority on dinosaur behaviour, Aubrey Whitsmith is dispatched to investigate. With hardened convicts and soldiers to protect her, Whitsmith soon discovers the creature is far from natural. Part dinosaur, part man, the creature has been hunting the soldiers, and finds new prey in the former prisoners. Whitsmith's worst fears are being confirmed: the dinosaurs are becoming more intelligent and are beginning to fight back.
