Colours Lester Allen

ColoursColours, is a simple book which helps to introduce, educate and simply learn the colours which surround us in our daily lives. Walter worm is the star performer and model for this two part exercise. The book designed for children of kindergarden, pre-school or nursery age, provides both parent and child the opportunity to spend time and interact in a simple and fun learning activity. Part 1 of the book leads the reader through ten colours which make Walter the character he is or that he wears to go about his daily life. Click on the audio icon for the simple phrases on screen. Part 2 is where Walter asks the question and parent and child have the opportunity to choose the correct colour. As you click on the correct colour an audio confirmation will be read. The Colours book is simple, direct, bold in colour and graphics and importantly fun to view, and essentially a sound exercise in early colour awareness.
