The Fascination of Birds: From the Albatross to the Yellowthroat (Dover Birds) William Young

This captivating collection of 99 essays conveys a wealth of information that will interest readers at all levels of birding skill. The essays combine the author's extensive field experience with reflections drawn from biology, ecology, literature, music, history, politics, economics, religion, geography, physics, chemistry, linguistics, the visual arts, the performing arts, sports, and comedy. They are arranged in alphabetical order by type of bird, from the albatross to the yellowthroat, and each essay has a subtitle about the context in which the bird is discussed. Unlike bird books that are designed to be carried into the field to aid in identification, The Fascination of Birds is written to be enjoyed at home. No previous knowledge of birds is necessary to understand the text.
