The Complete Kabbalah Course Paul Roland

In his foreword, Z'ev ben Shimon Halevi describes this book as: "... an impressive work. It has scholarship, theory and practice wrapped in strong feelings of love for this ancient esoteric system." He goes on to say: "... there are now many publications on Kabbalah, but most of them are written from hearsay. This is a thorough investigation from many angles, including the Jewish orthodox and Western occult approaches. Yet the main theme of human evolution, the cosmos and their relationship to the Divine is never forgotten." "This is the mark of a true Kabbalist, not that of a learned scholar or well-researched writer." Finally he concludes: "... this is all indicated by the excellent exercises, which are clearly based on personal experience. And the many anecdotes used to illustrate his points. Of equal importance is Roland's grip on common sense and his strong insistence that it must not be discarded."
