One Young Man (The World At War) J. E. Hodder-Williams

One Young Man is a true story about one man going into WWI and surviving, yet there are also letters that have been written that give the reader an insight into the time the author has spent during the war. The author states that the tale is about a real man, but for privacy the author has opted for a false name to protect the soldier who fought for his country.(It was actually his brother).
