The Hamiltons of Ballydown (The Hamiltons Series) Anne Doughty

At the close of the nineteenth century the Hamilton family is enjoying new-found security and modest prosperity. John is a respected employee at the local mill and Rose's four children are growing into young men and women of whom she can feel justly proud. But as she watches them make their own choices - and mistakes - she must draw on an inner reserve of steadfastness to face what the future holds.
