Multicultural Counseling Competencies: Assessment, Education and Training, and Supervision (Multicultural Aspects of Counseling And Psychotherapy) Donald B. Pope-Davis, Hardin L. K. Coleman

In this volume, leading researchers and trainers in multicultural counselling and psychology address the issues of what makes a counsellor multiculturally competent and how to create more culturally competent counsellors.

The contributors consider ways to evaluate counsellors for their awareness, knowledge and skills in working with a broad spectrum of populations. Chapters also examine in detail the pedagogical implications of establishing competencies, including training philosophies and models as well as course and curriculum development.
