The Good Soldier Ford Madox Ford

Set just prior to WWI, the Good Soldier is narrated by the character John Dowell, half of one of the couples whose dissolving relationships form the subject of the novel. Dowell tells the stories of those dissolutions as well as the deaths of three characters and the madness of a fourth, in a rambling, non-chronological fashion that leaves gaps for the reader to fill. The “plot” is not then the real story; the reader is asked to consider whether s/he believes Dowell and what part he truly played in how this “saddest story ever told” actually plays out.
